Dear Mr. Porup,

I am writing in further response to your Freedom of Information Act request of June 19, 2017 for records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Administration. Your request for FBI case file 105-HQ-65643 on Graham Greene was received in this office on June 19, 2017 and assigned FOIA tracking number 53374.

I have completed a line-by-line review of FBI file 105-HQ-65643 and released information to the greatest extent possible. Two pages have been redacted to protect classified national security information per 5 USC 552 (b)(1) and 41 pages are released in full.

You or your representative may view the redacted file at the National Archives facility in College Park, MD. Please contact our office at least one week in advance of your visit at specialaccess.foia@nara.gov or 301-837-3190 to arrange to see the file. If you cannot visit our College Park facility, you may order a reproduction copy at the cost of $0.80 per page by contacting our office to place an order.

This concludes the processing of your request. If you have additional questions concerning my review of this file, please contact me directly at 301-837-1716 or susan.francis@nara.gov.

If you are not satisfied with my action on this request, you have the right to file an administrative appeal within ninety (90) calendar days from the date of this letter. Appeals must be in writing and may be delivered by regular U.S. mail or by e-mail. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under the Freedom of Information Act and present the deciding agency with an opportunity to review your request and reconsider its decision. If you submit your appeal by regular mail, it should be addressed to the Deputy Archivist of the United States (ND), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 4200, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. Both the letter and envelope should be clearly marked "FOIA Appeal." If you submit your appeal by e-mail, please send it to foia@nara.gov, addressed to the Deputy Archivist, with the words "FOIA Appeal" in the subject line. If you exercise your right to appeal, please explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. All communications concerning this request should reference FOIA tracking number 53374.
